To the Family:

May you find peace and comfort in God's word during this difficult time in your life. I was fortunate enough to work with Al for 14 years.

Al's laughter, expertise, advice and his cooking specialties will truly be missed. All of you will continue to be in my thoughts and most of all my prayers,

Sincerely,

My thoughts and prayers go out to his wife Lee and their 3 children, Mollie, Sarah and Burt. I was very fortunate to work with AL for 18 years. He taught me a lot. I enjoyed his friendship and his advice. Al would love to talk about his family, grilling, riding bikes and let's not forget Penn State Foot Ball. He cooked the best Brisket around, and told us so many fun and loving stories about Mollie, Burt and Sarah. He would tell me about the trips he would take Lee on before the babies came. If PENN STATE WON the game on Saturday we all knew it was going to be a good Monday. Al will be truly missed by so many people.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the Smith family. I had the opportunity to work with Al for 2 years @ GRR and the one thing that I learned about Al was that he truly loved his family. We were fortunate to have him cook up some of his specialties on the grill and enjoyed his stories that he would share with us around the lunch table. I know that he will truly be missed by so many. RIP Al
