

Catherine Smith Luxmore

August 21, 1970 - August 14, 2019

Catherine Smith Luxmore died on Wednesday, August 14, 2019 after a valiant one-year fight with glioblastoma brain cancer.

A gathering of family and friends will be held on Sunday, August 18, 2019 from 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock at James A. Dyal Funeral Home. A memorial service will be held on Monday, August 19, 2019 at 11 o'clock at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Summerville, 206 Central Ave, Summerville, SC 29483. Interment will follow at St. Luke's Lutheran Church Columbarium.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 206 Central Ave, Summerville, SC 29483 or American Cancer Society for Glioblastoma research, at www.cancer.org.

Ms. Luxmore was born Aug. 21, 1970, in Charleston, the beloved daughter of Mary Moore Smith and Thomas O. Smith. She graduated from Summerville High School and then the College of Charleston in December 1991.

She began teaching at Dorchester District II schools in January 1992. She was medically retired from District 2. Her teaching posts included Rollings Elementary and Rollings School of Arts, Knightsville Elementary, DuBose Middle School, Fort Dorchester Elementary and Alston Middle.

She was the District Rookie Teacher of the Year her first year of teaching and later was Teacher of the Year at Rollings Elementary. She had been a member of Alpha Kappa Delta teaching society.

Ms. Luxmore was an excellent storyteller and a former member of the Backporch Storytellers. She was also a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church. She was a loyal and loving friend, sister, mother and built her life around her children. She was loved and admired by many and will be truly missed by her children, family, friends, and former students whose lives she touched.

Surviving are her parents; her children, Sarah, Jack and Ben; her brother, Andy Smith and wife, Lori, of Sumter; a niece, Mary Catherine Smith, and two nephews, Christopher and Robert Smith; her in-laws, Fred and Janet Luxmore; sister-in-law, Lori Loftis and husband, John; five aunts and two uncles; and many first cousins.

The family would like to thank her four caregivers for their loving care during her final

“ Dear Luxmore & Smith families:

I'm so sorry for your loss.

While I haven't seen Cathy in many years, the Smith family has been so dear to me and my family, and my wife Tami. We are heartbroken over your loss.

Please know we are praying for you all at this most difficult time.

“ Sarah, John T & Ben - so very sorry for your loss. Just remember that you're not saying goodbye to your mom but rather, "until we meet again (in heaven)"! We know she's there now as Jesus told the repentant thief on the cross, "today you will be with me in paradise (heaven)". We will see you all tomorrow & Monday and hope you'll come visit us whenever you're ready. Remember (John 16:22), that, "you have sorrow now but I (Jesus) will see you again (talking to us thru His Disciples) and your hearts will rejoice and no one (then) will take the joy from you". Love to you all!! Aunt Paula, Uncle John T & Aunt Billie K

“ Dear Mary and Tom,
I was so saddened to read of Cathy's passing. She was a precious child. I always admired what a beautiful family y'all had with Cathy and Andy. I have thought of y'all often over the years and wondered what was going on your lives. Although I have been away for 33+ years, you all still gave a place in my heart. Sending love, hugs and prayers to all of you at this sad and difficult time.

“ Aunt Mary, Uncle Tom, Andy and Lori,
My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I am also praying for Cathy's children. I remember being shown Cathy's nursery and thinking that she was a very lucky baby. Her room was beautiful, she had cool, young parents and a room to herself! She grew into a beautiful young lady and then had children of her own. I will always remember her sweet smile and how she taught us all the meaning of love!

“ Cathy may have retired as a teacher with Dorchester District 2, but she never quit teaching. She remained an inspiration, teaching us all something about life – living and dying - during her long, courageous battle with glioblastoma brain cancer. What a blessing she was to her family and her several communities. God’s peace to the family, a family that was a blessing to her.

“ My prayers are with each of you during this time. It was such a wonderful moment to hear about Cathy's salvation experience and to hear and see how God changed her life. May you all feel God's comfort in a very special way in the days and weeks to come. Each of you did a wonderful job taking care of Cathy.

Rev. Tim Nicholson - August 16 at 09:36 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you during this time of bereavement. It was an honor to be able to get to know Cathy as well as each of you as family members as you took such wonderful care of Cathy. The love for one another was so evident during our visits. May you take comfort knowing that Cathy is with her Heavenly Father and also take comfort in the wonderful memories you have of her. May God bless and keep you in the days and weeks to come.

Intrepdi Hospice Staff - August 16 at 09:34 AM

“ My deepest condolences to this family. I teach at Millwood Elementary in Sumter where Lori is a new teacher. The obituary was shared with our faculty and staff. I was touched by the generous and beautiful life that she lived. May God continue to richly bless the lives of the people she loved. Our faculty and staff are praying for you during this difficult time.
