

Aaron E. Platt

April 28, 1935 - July 24, 2025

SUMMERVILLE, SC – Aaron E. Platt, a devoted husband, loving father, cherished grandfather, and faithful servant, passed away peacefully at the age of 90. Born in Holly Hill, SC, Aaron lived a life marked by dedication to his family, his craft, and his faith.

For 66 remarkable years, Aaron was the beloved husband of Eva Creel Platt. Their enduring love story was a testament to commitment and partnership. Together, they built a beautiful family, raising three children: Morgan Avon (Amy) Platt of Lexington, SC, Jack O. (Ellen) Platt, Sr. of Summerville, SC, and Amanda Jane (Allen) Upchurch of Pelion, SC.

Aaron was a skilled carpenter by trade, contributing his talents for many years to Ruscon Construction Company before his well-deserved retirement. His craftsmanship was a source of pride, reflecting his diligent and steady nature.

A "good and faithful servant," Aaron was a dedicated worshiper at First Church of God in Summerville, SC, where he gave of his time, talents, and service as an example of Christ-like love.

He leaves behind a rich legacy through his nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. His grandchildren include Morgan's children: Brady Platt, Hanna (Kenny) Limehouse, and Logan (Mabry) Platt; Jack Sr.'s children: Jack (Macy) Platt Jr. and Jimmy Platt; and Amanda's children: Brittany Whitlock, April Whitlock, Tiffany (Brad) Thompson, and Andrea Upchurch. His great-grandchildren, who brought him immense joy, are Aleena, Peyton, Aiden, Cooper, Maddie, Evelyn, Malia, Brooks, Lucas, and Keagan.

Aaron was preceded in death by his brother, John Platt, and his sisters, Naomi Russell, Voncile Todd, Minnie Davidson, and Eunice Platt. He is survived by his dear sister, Francis Creel.

Aaron E. Platt will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. His quiet strength, unwavering devotion, and kind spirit will forever remain in the hearts of his family and friends.
