

Ainsley Lloyd Perkins

July 12, 1944 - August 14, 2019

Ainsley Lloyd Perkins, 75, of Summerville, South Carolina, passed away August 14, 2019, with her family by her side.

She was born to the late Capt. Bruce Kerr Lloyd and Jane Johnstone Lloyd on July 12, 1944 in Dubois, Pennsylvania. Ainsley graduated from St. Mary's Academy in 1962, and received a BA in Elementary Education from Lock Haven State College in 1966.

Ainsley was married to B Raymond Perkins Jr. in 1966. They celebrated their fifty third wedding anniversary in January. Ainsley is survived by two children: Melissa Grossman (Matt) and Karen Radcliffe (Jack) and a brother, Dr. Bruce Kerr Lloyd and a sister, Carol Lloyd Fagnan. She is also survived by three grandchildren: Jackson B Woodward Radcliffe, Abigail Lloyd Grossman and Isabella Webster Grossman.

Ainsley was a wife, mother, Nanny and educator. Each one of her roles was accomplished with great love and compassion. She was a first grade teacher for over 30 years. Twenty seven of the years were spent at Summerville Elementary School. While at SES, she built lasting relationships with students and colleagues.

“ Last year we all rented a house to prepare for a Clemson game. Prior to game there was a night of games and laughter. Game day, several went to game and some went shopping. Ainsley and Elaine stretched out on couches and watched hours of football. When all returned, we shared that we perfected our football knowledge. We were amazing. She will forever be my football buddy!
