“ Though I never met Ali, I witnessed her journey since diagnosis through her mom. I know what a courageous young woman she was and how she did not let GBM define her. Sending prayers to her amazing family. Continue to draw strength from each other. Rest In Peace, dear Ali.

“ Ali was pure Joy.

Never hesitating to share that Joy with others.

My forever and happiest memories of Ali will be those that returned that Joy to her.

The visit to Seaside, walking by the bay, playing cards, teasing Carol, (remember Quidich) cooking together and all the laughter and Love we shared that visit. And watching that unbelievable smile on her face. And just talking about everything.

And Thanksgiving. More card playing, wonderful family time, lots more laughter and love added to Love. I will especially remember the talk we had on our walk after dinner.

And then there was Ali and Shane. I couldn't begin to describe it but if you were there you know how special it was. And again that bright as Sunshine smile.

Ali was the most genuine person I've ever met. Truly "what you see is what you get". And every second of what you got was a treasure.

The way she lived her life will continue to be a benchmark for how I hope to live mine.

I feel so blessed to have had her as part of my life and to have loved her.

Rest with the Angels Dear One.

“ There were so many wonderful and hilarious memories of Ali choosing one is impossible. Ali lit up a room with her contagious smile. She loved laughing at herself and me! She was game for everything and anything. Ali was the kindest, bravest, and most authentic person I've had the honor of being friends with. She without a doubt got a first class ticket to heaven. Ali will live forever in my heart, as she will for all who were blessed to know her. Her contagious smile with light up the sky. May she dance with the angels and be free.

Fly free sweet Ali girl 🙏❤️
