“ Allens father, Alton is our neighbor. Alton enjoys and loves his children and grandchildren dearly. When Allen would come to his father's home my daughter's would play the guessing game of which one of Altons sons were visiting (we never could really figure out who drove what car). We'd always see Allen in passing or if he was arriving while we were visiting his dad. He always spoke to us and was very pleasant. Alton is more than a neighbor to us, he's more like family. In hard times remember to not be discouraged, God will strengthen you and help you. Know that I am always just a few steps away and willing to be there to help with anything I can. We have you all in our prayers.
