

Alvin Lee Martin

January 13, 1963 - September 8, 2012

Alvin Lee Martin, 49, of Johns Island, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on Saturday, September 8, 2012 at his residence. He is now resting in the arms of Jesus. Funeral service will be held Friday, September 14, 2012 at 2 o'clock at Adams Run Baptist Church. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Alvin was born January 13, 1963 in Davidson County, Tennessee, son of Mildred Haskins of Hermitage, Tennessee and the late Alvin Douglas Martin. He was a graduate of White House High School in Tennessee. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and riding his Harley. He was a proud contractor, building homes on Edisto Island and Seabrook Island.

Surviving in addition to his mother are: one son: Jacob "Jake" Martin of Johns Island, four sisters: Joyce Salter and LaDonna Ellis both of Hendersonville, Tennessee, Sheila McGhee of Greenbrier, Tennessee and Lisa Napier of Hendersonville, Tennessee, one brother: Johnny Martin of Edisto Island and 20 nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and his pug: Buster. He was predeceased by one brother: William Douglas Martin. Alvin was loved by many and had friends near and far.

Tribute Wall

“ Alvin Lee Martin

September 29, 2022 at 10:11 AM