

Alvin Lee McNeese

May 8, 1948 - October 12, 2025

Alvin Lee McNeese, AKA “Slim”, age 77, of Summerville, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on October 12, 2025. Born on May 8, 1948, in Tifton, Georgia, Alvin was the beloved son of the late Leoy McNeese and Florene Davidson. He will be remembered by his 5 daughters, Carol Farr, Cathy Bewersdorf, Leesa Willis, Melanie Freer, and Alexis McNeese, as well as his grandchildren Aaron Mock, Andrew McNeese, Hillary Mock, Miranda Langdale, Taylor Mock, Rayna Price, Elise McNabb, Elvis Taylor, Ozzy Taylor, and Poppy Taylor.

Alvin proudly served his country in the United States Air Force, where he achieved the rank of Sergeant before retiring. Following his military service, he applied his skills as a metalist working for GE, Clover Enterprises, and the North Charleston Sewer District.

While Alvin was a homebody at heart, he had a remarkable way of connecting with people. He enjoyed good conversation and never turned down an opportunity to share a story and a laugh, especially with his “counter critter” friends at Flowertown. He also had a passion for salt-water fishing and a lifelong interest in staying current with technology, always curious and always learning.

A celebration of his life is being planned for the near future.

“ Often called his "red headed step-son". This man helped raise me since 1986. He was for all these years a dad to me, a mentor , and my friend. You will be missed Alvin. To his 5 lovely daughters Carol , Cathy, Lissa, Melanie and Alexis, my prayers and heart goes out to each and every one of you..

“ Alvin took me on my first saltwater fishing trip😍 I will never forget how much we laughed at my first rid and reel practice throw...pitched it as hard as I could😂 it ended up behind us both somehow. So many good memories growing up and babysitting Cathy and Carol too. I'm glad you're not hurting anymore Alvin😭 until we all meet again..I always loved you my Uncle.❤️
