“ Mandy was such a giving person. She was especially kind and supportive whenever I had to take a cat for their last trip to Steve and Sheri's clinic. I feel that she is now surrounded by all those loving creatures that she took such care for in their final hours. Her memory lives on, but my sympathies to family and friends in the sorrow of losing her physical presence.

“ So sorry that we will not have her smiling face among us in the traditional sense-she was strong and kind and I will always remember that sweet courage through the loss and difficulty and also the joys of having animals in my life and in the care of the place she worked and was such a part of-she will never be forgotten, always thankfully remembered by anyone lucky enough to have had the good fortune to have known her,she was a blessing and is no doubt surrounded in some beautiful field of green by all the grateful animals she cared for in her time here.
