“ Ken, My sincere condolences on the passing of Andrea. While I never had the opportunity to meet her, knowing the character of her husband speaks volumes to the woman she was. You and your family are in my prayers. May God comfort you during this time of mourning, and grant you the grace to move forward with strength.

Best regards,

“ I offer my most sincere condolences to you, Ken, your children and your extended family through Andrea. Time passes and makes us painfully aware of what's been lost. I don't believe in not having regrets. Regrets, at times, are a necessary reminder to stay engaged, to not allow life pass as if there will always be a tomorrow. I know I am guilty of this, and your loss weighs heavy on me today. I'm sorry that I let that time slip by without making more of an effort to spend time with you and Andrea over the years. Be well old friend, and know that I'm thinking about you.
