“ Our prayers are with each of you during this time. We know that the loss of a mother can be so hard as there is nothing like a mother's love. As Christians we also know that our Father's love comforts us in every situation. It is that love that helps carry us. He is the Great Comforter and is the one who will provide strength, hope and peace in the days and weeks to come. Remember He loves you and is with you always. We thank you for allowing us to help in the care of Mrs. Everett. God bless.

“ I visited Ann when she was at Presbyterian Home. I valued my time with her as she shared her love for all of you. I also loved her stories of taking the children to Barnes and noble to share her love of reading. That is the memory I will hold in my heart of her. She shared so many books with me and introduced me to many new authors. She was one of the finest, most Christian ladies I've ever known. I know heaven is a richer place today. My prayers for you all in your time of lose.
