“ I've only known Annette for a few years through Gene. She'd come shopping in the store where I work. I knew she had been sick. But, even on her not so good days, she'd still manage a smile. She was always so sweet. I just saw her a couple of weeks ago. I'm so glad I gave her a hug not really knowing that would be the last one. RIP Annette. Heaven gained another angel.

“ I am honored to know Annette from our childhood days, to all the years working at Bosch. She was inspiration, without even knowing it. On bad days she still smiled, thanked the Lord, and love everything and everyone around her! Her smile and warm heart is something I will always remember and cherish. My heart, hugs and prays to out to each and everyone of the family members.
