“ There are no words I can type out or say to you that could ease the pain of your Family's loss.

A Son, A Brother, A Father, A Friend....

I wasn't fortunate enough to enjoy Shane's Character, Personality or Big Laugh and Infectious Smile as many of you were... But what little time I did spend with him, may it be Safety Meetings, Training Classes, or other work related "events"... One thing was certain....

He was gonna bust out with a joke and make folks laugh.

Showing off a trinket he got off of "Wish" (and highly recommending you to shop there for good deals) or messaging him about motorcycles, cameras for motorcycles, bike mounts or routes to ride He was a genuine Guy....

He's gonna be missed No Doubt.

Never got the opportunity to ride with him... But we talked about it on a number of occasions....

I'll try to keep the rubber side down... Until I see you again....

Bye For Now....

“ Dearest Susan and Family,
There are just no words to express how very sorry we are for this terrible tragedy. I am still in shock and disbelief that Shane is gone. He was a wonderful son, father and friend to so many. Please know my entire family are joining yours in prayer. If there is anything we can do for you, please don't hesitate to let us know.
We pray the Shalom of the Lord: "Peace in wholeness with nothing missing and nothing broken" will overshadow you and your family. His perfect peace in knowing that your Shane is in good and loving hands.
Gods Blessings,
Janet and Ron Martineau
