“ May god bless Wayne's family at this sorrowful time. Wayne was such a nice man and no doubt now walking in heaven. I have some fond memories of when my family first moved to S.C. and I lived across the road from Wayne.

“ Wayne has been a good friend of ours forever.
Life directs our path as time goes on.
We had not seen Wayne for a long time until we checked in at Trident Hospital for tests.
To our surprise, Wayne was working there.
What a joy to see him each day! HIS presence made our task bearable.
We pray that God will continue to bless his family..

“ We share many memories with Wayne from Rhett Ave Christian Church, then Northwood Assembly. I have admired his strength, his laugh-at-life attitude and his dedication to Barbara, Tony and Rhett. Life happens, yet Wayne endured and gave his all to being a friend to all. For weeks, I've been thinking of him. When I met Carol, we felt like family from the beginning. Condolences to the Moody families.

“ Wayne was such a sweet loving volunteer at Trident for many years that spoiled the staff in ACC with treats ❤️. My heart and many who knew him are heartbroken 💔. May God comfort his family for they have truly lost a jewel.
