“ You two were such fun and gave me so many memories. Most of all, you made me a camping fan! I remember when I first moved there and Toni was helping me unpack, she was so happy to call me her cousin. Totally mutual. And how her nose was numb after we had a few cocktails. Just so many good, lifelong memories with you too.

“ Living across the street all those years gave me the opportunity to pick at her every time she walked outside or got out of her car when she got home. It also gave her the opportunity to get back at me by putting unwanted flowers and Christmas decorations at my yard light. Take comfort in knowing she's at peace.
