*“ We were so looking forward to Barbara coming back over for Halloween this year. She was such a great neighbor and friend to everyone on our street. We are heartbroken and she will be terribly missed. The only solace comes from knowing she is in her husband’s loving arms again. “ Lisa, no words could ever be written to express our deepest of sympathies for you and your family’s great loss. It was an honor and privilege that you shared your mom with us. Ms. Barbara was a gift; a person who lived her life to the fullest; expressed her gratitude ceaselessly and embraced others without hesitation. The stories she shared of her marriage, family, friends and life authored the actual pages of her life story. A colorful, exciting, adventure blessed with much love. Thank you so very much for bringing her into our lives. Her footprints are etched on the hearts of all those who knew her. May angels’ wings wrap you and your entire family in His healing grace.
