“ I worked with Barry at MILCOM Systems in North Charleston. He sort of took me under his wing and taught me the Federal Contractor role and was diligent at his job. I missed him when he retired from MILCOM since he was always reliable to get the job done.

When I think of Barry I smile! I was with his bride, Kathy when they met. They met In NYC on New Year's Eve! What a story! Who would have guessed that you could meet your soulmate in NYC on New Year's Eve? No-one! We were standing on a corner, enjoying the festivities, surrounded by many people and men in blue. Kathy spoke to him and he spoke back in a southern accent. She kept saying that he had a nice smile and that there was something about him. Well, he followed us home on the train to New Haven. We dropped him off in New Haven, and he called a friend who lived in the area. Of course they exchanged telephone numbers and the rest is history! Fond memories of both Barry & Kathy. Peace and love! Miss you both, Kathy Bowen
