“ To the family,
Thank you for the opportunity to love and help care for Ms. Betty. She was a very special and "sassy" little lady. She was always appreciative of everything. If you didn't know, she liked chocolate (a lot). I stumbled on this by accident. One day while visiting her, I offered her a lollipop. Her eyes lit up like a little kid on Christmas morning, as she accepted the lollipop. So we talked and she told me her favorite candy was anything chocolate. Of course, I needed to make sure she had some whenever she wanted it. We figured out the "Magic of Betty Beans". To most people they are just M&M's, but to my friend, they were like magic. We couldn't determine which color gave her the most strength, so she would have to several to decide.
She was such a special person & I am honored to have had the privilege to get to know "My Betty".
You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
