

Colel Blease "C.B." Droze

February 22, 1921 - March 13, 2011

Colel Blease "C.B." Droze, 90, widower of Grace H. Droze, died Sunday, March 13, 2011 at the Veterans Victory House, Walterboro.

A celebration of life service will be held Wednesday, March 16, 2011 at 11 o'clock at Summerville Church of God, 304 South Pine Street, Summerville. Entombment will follow at Dorchester Memory Gardens, Summerville. Friends may call at James A. Dyal Funeral Home, Summerville from 6 until 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Veteran's Victory House, 2461 Sidney's Road, Walterboro, SC 29488 or Summerville Church of God, 115 Garbon Road, Summerville, SC 29483.

C.B. was born February 22, 1921 in Charleston, son of the late Henry S. Droze and Julia Ann Blumenburg Droze. He attended John DeLaHowe School in McCormick, SC. He was a veteran of the United States Army 45th Infantry Division serving during World War II. He retired from the Charleston Naval Shipyard as an electrician and he was a member of the V.F.W. Post #3142. Surviving are: one son: Guy Wayne Droze of Charleston, one daughter: Francine Reed of Moncks Corner, one adopted daughter: Charlotte Crosby of Moncks Corner, one grandchild: Diana L. Russell of Knoxville, Tenn., two great granddaughters: Amanda and Sydney Russell both of Knoxville, Tenn., one brother: Samuel M. Droze of Interlachen, Fla. He is predeceased by his brothers and sisters: Paul Droze, Wilmon Droze, Rev. Louis Droze, Letha Grady and Dorothy Randazzo.

Tribute Wall

“ Colel Blease "C.B." Droze

September 29, 2022 at 10:11 AM