“ Brian, You will forever be a young vivacious man, even when the rest of us are old.....we will always see that infectious smile and remember your sense of humor. You were a gift from God that we all got to share for a short time. You will be missed until we meet again in God's Glory.

“ Katherine and to Brian's entire family and close knit friends, My name is Diana Waldrep. I knew Brian through Heath Blanchard. I JUST found out today, what happened. Somehow I received an email TODAY, that he sent me on November 21, 2010. I believe God allowed that message to come in. I know that I am a stranger to most of you, but Brian was a good friend, via Heath. I am deeply saddened for your loss, and I hope I can do ANYTHING to help with your grieving process. If you are wanting donations sent in memory, or ANYTHING that I can do...as a friend and fellow Christian I will do anything. I go to Temple Baptist in Anderson SC. I am putting this prayer request in with my pastor in a moment. My heart goes out to all of you. Brian is with God, and all of our other friends who passed too soon. I know how much he loved his parents, he spoke of you often in High School. Much Love and Constant Prayers,
Diana Waldrep

“ Liz, Sonny, and Harriet,I cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. I certainly have many fond memories of my days at your house and all of the laughs that we all shared. I remember riding a sled in the snow with Brian one time in front of your house and we crashed horribly into a tree and then laughed until we cried! God is in control of the storm....even this one.Love you all.....

“ I remember diving for quarters with Brian while Mrs Harriet threw them in the pool. Brian had some boxing gloves and it was fun to spar with him because I was 3years older and had a longer reach. I remember him telling me that his mom explained to him what Madonna's "Like a Virgin" meant. I can still see him as a member of " the church mouse choir" with the ears and whiskers. He had a Speak & Spell that kept us very entertained. I remember Brian's smile the most. Ya always wanted to just pinch his cheeks :) I don't have enough room for all my memories of Brian. So thankful to have known him. So happy he is praising Jesus in person, fully healed and free of pain! I am very sad but know that God will be glorified in Brian's homecoming. Praying for peace, comfort and healing for your family. You are loved.
