“ Deepest condolences, Brian and I were classmates, We shared several classes our junior and senior year. He was a beautiful person inside and out. We recently reached out to each other on social media not knowing this was going to happen. RIP.

“ Brian was a great friend too many of us who went to school with him. Several of us (Tim Jackson and Patrick Wyer) had recently reconnected with him. He came down and stayed with me in Mid October. We all had a great time shrimping, fishing, eating great food and watching our Tigers get another win over Miami. It was a wonderful time and made it felt like we were all back in school. I feel blessed that I got to see him again and that we all had the opportunity to say when departing, "Love Ya Man!"
My family's thoughts and prayers are with the LaBombard Family.

“ We loved Brian. Although we have not been close since he left the Summerville area, we communicated with him periodically. He generously helped us when our daughter was up at Clemson, always willing to lend a hand. We are very sad and he will be missed. He was always so much fun and we will treasure the memories we have of him from high school and beyond.

“ I wanted to send my condolences. While I hadn't been in contact much with Brian after Clemson I have many good memories of him strumming his guitar in our dorm rooms. He always lit up a room with his smile. He will be missed and the world for me will be a little less bright without him in it. You will be in my thought and prayers.

“ Brian and I were roommates and fraternity brothers at Clemson. He was one of the most thoughtful and considerate people I have ever met. We connected occasionally in the last 10 years just to say hi and check in. Please know that my wife April and I send our deepest condolences.

“ Brian and I didn't hang out together. We weren't "best friends," however Brian was always a gentleman who oozed a quiet strength and showed compassion for others. Brian influenced me and made me want to be more like him. He was always quick with a smile and, "hello." For those of you who knew him better, you have been blessed and I can't help but to feel that I missed out for not knowing him better myself. The world was a better place simply that Brian LaBombard was in it. --Doug Bingham
