“ Sis Brie was beautiful inside and out. She was fearless and faithful. She was optimistic in every situation. Her smile could light up ant room. She always lit up speaking about her amazing granddaughters! Her children and mother were her center. Sis Brie was a real, true sister to me by choice. Sister Sag (Me, Brie and Trisha)...we worked hard together in DC and played harder. Heaven gained an angel. I will never forget xo.

“ Family,

My prayers are with you all. This is excruciating I am sure for you as it is for us who loved her so dearly. For a while in our early teens and teenage years, we were what you would call a blended family. I introduced her as my sister and she introduced me as her brother. We met under really difficult circumstances for both of our families but the upside was that I got a sister and brother out of all that chaos. They are reunited now and catching up I'm sure and she's taking care of him just like she did before. 🙏

“ I worked in an administrative/financial role with Bri at CommIT. Everyone that worked with Bri, both with CommIT and the government, is saddened by her passing. She was one of the few people I've encountered that everyone talked positively about and no one spoke a bad word about her. The world is a worse place without her in it.

“ I met Brie early in school, she always had this smile and bright energy about her. She was always in pursuit of being greater and living and fulfilling all of her dreams. She looked out for people and was a blessing. We lost touch later in life but nevertheless with the blessing of social media, Brie was always smiling and full of life. We just had our 40-year class reunion, and I took it for granted not to go due to prior commitments. Who would of known, we would have lost a Mother, a grandmother, a sister, a colleague and a dear friend. Brie, rest well sister; rest well. Your journey here is done. We'll take it from here. “ I had the privilege of working with Brie for the past two years, and beyond her professional talents, I came to know her as a passionate seamstress. She loved talking about her sewing and how she would lose track of time when she went into her sewing room. She was so kind and warm-hearted, and I always saw her greet everyone with a smile! I was both surprised and deeply saddened to hear of her passing. Please accept my heartfelt condolences.

“ This news came sudden and unexpected however that is how it goes. I worked closely with Brie over the past 2 years and we had a great relationship. “ I was so taken back when I heard that Brie had passed, it was so unexpected. Brie and I worked together for the past 2 years. She was very easy to talk to and we would share stories and good laughs about our families.

She loved to talk about her grandchildren. I will miss our talks and I wish we would have had that girl dinner we talked about. My heartfelt condolences go out to her grandchildren, children, and family. - With Sympathy and Love, Colleen Newman and Family.
