I always remember him and my daughter spending the week at my dad and his wives. They loved when that time came. I at a party, they were having walked in the bathroom and the two were hiding smaoking as we all did as young adults. Their faces were priceless. All I could do was laugh. Rest in PEACE Forrester. My daughter and I will miss you greatly. Prayers are lifting for all the family. Pebble and Lindsey

Forrester my Forrester...man I cant believe it. We hadnt talked much over several years but you were always a little big brother to me. We had talks about the most personal things. You heard my cry and I heard yours. I remember how close you and Summer were. Bless her heart. God called a true angel home. You will forever be missed. SIP

“ I never met forrester but I've take the time to read what his friends have to say about him. It great when your friends and your work friends say good things about you. The love he showed for his child was the constant reminder throughout what everyone had to say, and the video expressed it all. I think she will know the love he has shared with her until this time. To Summer and family I am so very sorry for the loss of Forster, May you find joy in things to come, the resurrection

“ I am shocked and saddened by Forrester's passing!!!! He was the kindest and most polite guy I know!!! He was a great and loving father to Summer and any other child around. He had a child's innocence that made him loved by all that met him!!!! The world has lost some of its luster by his passing. You will always be missed and never forgotten!! Ride high and keep a spot for us! We'll ride again. Love a and miss ya.
My condolences to Carleen and Forrester's family and friends!!! SO sorry for your terrible loss.

“ Every interaction at work with Forrester was pleasant. He was such a good and positive person...never an unkind word for or about anyone. We miss him so much. I have been and will continue praying for his precious daughter, Summer, his family, and loved ones for God to ease their grief and give them strength and courage now and the days to come. Ride free forever my friend. Love always, Nettie (at Lowcountry HD)

“ In 2014, Forrester and I were talking..he had changed so much from the last time that I saw him...it had been a few years. He had a zeal for God, similar to what I found in my life, and I was so proud of him as we both shared similar hardships and also this passionate love for Jesus Christ! Over the years I would see him at church and I know that he, like me, wanted to grow and learn God's plan! Forrester was a handsome young man too but we never shared that type of connection, just friends and a mutual respect for each other! I was sad to hear of Forrester's passing. Now that you are gone, I will continue to carry that torch all of my days, the light of the world that cannot ever be put out! May you rest in peace, Forrester and my prayer is for your loved ones. I hope that your daughter is comforted and continues to live a wholesome life. The family is in my thoughts and prayers!

“ Heartbroken to hear this news. Forrester was a good friend that I met in high school. One of the nicest people I've ever known. We've ran into each other over the years and it was like nothing changed. This truly breaks my heart. He was an amazing dad & friend. My prayers are with his family.

“ I am so sry. Forester loved his daughter more than life itself. He was a better father than ill ever be. He was compassionate and cared for his fellow man.I just sold his catty that he sold me when the Ravens won the super bowl.He was a good man and great father. The world will miss him. If there is anything the family needs, plz dont hesitate to ask.
