“ I love this precious lady. We have had many a talk about God and His love for us. All I can see is her sweet angelic face with a gentle smile and her soft loving voice. She was a friend and I will cherish every moment we were together. I was so thankful to get to know her and her loving, Doug. They both exemplified what our loving Father is like through their life. I thank God for them in my life. Carol will be missed. She is now fully whole and rejoicing in God with no pain.

“ I remember when we were at a cancer care support meeting, and Carol said "we make jam." I remember thinking how she and Doug fit together perfectly. They make jam together.

“ I knew Carol in high School. More than anything I remember her smile, and her kindness. She had a beautiful spirit then, and I imagine it just continued to grow. Blessings to all of her family and those who called her friend.
