“ Very sorry to read of Carol's passing. I knew Bob and Carol thru my days with the News-Herald and the Pennridge Chamber of Commerce. They were such kind and happy people. As I recall she was quite a tennis player and they were great dancers. My sympathy to the entire family. Charles Baum, Perkasie, PA.

“ Cynthia and I send our love and sympathy to Bob and Kelly and Joyce and Sean.

We were so saddened to learn about Carol's death and have so many fond memories of spending time with Bob and Carol when they were still living in PA. We had wonderful dinners with them (and with Judy and Pat Frank and Joyce at least twice each year at the Pipersville Inn, Washington House, Century House, Springhouse Tavern and sometimes in restaurants in Philadelphia. Always lots of laughter. We are so glad we were able to travel to South Carolina in the spring of 2019 and to meet Bob and Carol for dinner in Charleston. We also remember with great appreciation and thanks that Bob and Carol were so very helpful during our Mom's illness in 1997 and 1998 and during our Dad's difficult years following Mom's death. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Bob, and we send our love. Beth and Cynthia
