“ Dear Ed,

We are sorry to hear of Ceil's passing. You were everything to each other.

We remember you walking hand in hand down Brandywine Dr together in better days. And we remember both of you having bypass surgery at the same time.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I worked with Cecile at Prudential Realty. I was a new agent and she was assigned as my mentor. I will never forget her patience in explaining "the ropes" to me and I was so impressed with her real estate knowledge. Most of all, she seemed to really care about my success. I will never forget her and send my deepest condolences to her family. God rest her soul.

“ Ceil always made me feel at home, when I would make my rounds visiting the various Real Estate offices in Summerville. She and I were both charter members of the Oakbrook Breakfast Rotary, and I saw first hand, her dedication to that organization, and to those who worked with, and for her.
I'll miss her, Ed.
