“ Debbie, I'm so sorry to see that your dad has passed away. I will be praying for your family. As I stroll through the obits for the Alumni Memorial page I quickly noticed the last name. I saw the picture next. What a blessing! Your dad's picture shows that he was a happy, fun loving guy. When my dad passed away, we had to use a three-piece suit picture which, I didn't love. This type of picture would have suited him much better. Remember all the great times you've shared. Its been 13 years since my dad went to heaven but not a day goes by without me thinking of one of his silly stories or faces that he always made. God Bless you and your family during this difficult time. Phyllis Hoffman Floyd

“ *I have known Fred and Sandy for the last 42 year of my life living next door to them. I have never met anyone like Fred. He was the kindest, sweetest, funniest man I have ever met and both Fred and Sandy treated my family as their own. I will miss him with all my heart as will Lance, Justin and Ryan. Our prayers and thoughts are with the entire Gartenbush family. We will always be here for you! With our greatest sympathy,
Kim, Lance, Justin and Ryan*

“ I first met Fred 6 years ago, we were moving in across the street and Heather had to work so I was having to unload furniture by myself. I was doing OK until it came time to take in the couch, it wasn't your ordinary couch, it was Heather's grandmothers and it was big and heavy ! Well next thing I know there's Fred introducing himself and offering to help, once we got it in he tells me he isn't suppose to lift anything heavy ! I later learned I must have timed it right, in between his morning fishing and afternoon golf, but I quickly learned that was the type of man Fred was, always willing to help. After Fred's accident I had the privilege of taking Fred to his old fishing spot and watch the boats come in and out, then stop by some of his favorite cigar shops several times. But my fondness memory and one I will always cherish is the day we went fishing. Wow, what a day ! Of course Fred caught all the fish, he was the more experienced fisherman and he really rubbed it in, telling everyone he caught them all, but that was just Fred being Fred !

Love ya buddy
