“ As I remember Mr. Charles, Charles is a mentor to me, I say is because what he taught me continues on today. I was called into the usher ministry at MRBC as a young Christian, I had the privilege of serving with Charles for many years. Charles thought me by his example, no one came into Gods House by way of Charles's post without a genuine warm welcome, he cared for people. Charles was always willing to do whatever was needed to enhance your worship experience, including, but not limited to, greeting you with a handshake, hug and a smile, while handing you a bulletin, to finding you a seat and making you feel welcome if you were a little late, he loved to serve. Charles was always one of the first ushers on his post, sometimes he would cover two or more post until others showed up, and he done so with a gracious humble attitude, he never grumbled, he was always part of the solution. As I look at the fabric of the usher ministry at Miles Road Baptist Church, I see you Charles Wise, just as other Godly servants who've preceded you to glory, Jerry Wilson, CB Mathews, JE Mullins, Dave Lenox, Wayne Kimsey, Ralph Pruitt, and Micky Gorrin, and others, interwoven through threads of your years of service. Thank you for making a continued difference in the Door Keepers Ministry at the House of Worship that you love so dearly.

On the roster, and in His service, brother, Chuck Layton
