“ I have many memories with Chris, being my brother in law. Even after Billy and I split, he still treated me like family...even welcoming my new husband and our kids. Always willing to givr advice. One of my favorite time with Chris was when John and I got married and we walked down to the local bar to celebrate afterwards. He definitely lit up a room with his smile and bubbly personality. I will miss Chris so much, only wish we talked more. I love you, see you in Heaven

“ I met Chris when his mom and I worked together at the hospital. I was impressed with this nice looking clean-cut young man. He was kind, polite, full of energy and full of life.
I have never forgotten the image he portrayed.

“ We would sit together and watch your favorite NBA basketball team L.A. Lakers and your Favorite football team Dallas Cowboys games play on TV. Your favorite NBA basketball player was Kobe Bryant. I would cook for us and we would have our dinners together while we watched them. You were a very important part of my life from Thanksgiving, Christmas family dinners and our engagement, we were a harmonious and wonderful couple together and we were both filled with so much love for each other. You were my friend, an amazing partner, my confidant.. my life partner in every sense of the word. The day you proposed to me I was very honored to be your fiancé and happily accepted it. You will be missed dearly by everyone. I will always love and miss you. You will always remain in my heart, mind, and live in my memories we had. 💍💕
P.S. - Say hi to Kobe Bryant for me!! 🏀

“ I met Chris along with his family on 2007 when Corrie , Carol , justice and I took a road trip to visit the family in South Carolina. We hang out one evening all together and let me tell you that Chris was the funniest , lovable guy ever. His smile to you was genuine and warm. He will be missed dearly. RIP Chris.
