What a beautiful red headed boy/man...what a devastating loss. Right now it just feels like a deep hole but I hope these precious images and wonderful memories of that smile and all those hugs will eventually fill you with the feeling of his presence until you are with him again. Much love

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I went to school with Scott and I remember him being very tall, stunning red hair, always smiling and a little reserved. May he rest in loving arms in heaven.

“ All of my memories of Scott are shared family events ,football games, poolside, many meals, typical loving ,sharing ,laughing sometimes silliness. The kind of memories everyone wishes they had .The kind that says what a good family what a good life. Scott is very much loved by his family and will be missed every day ,but remain in our hearts and minds. We are bound to thank God always for you. With heart felt sympathy for his family . ---All my love Joanne----
