“ With heavy hearts we already miss Colleen. She was a wonderful daughter-in-law. In fact, she was more like a daughter than in-law. We have so many memories of Colleen and all the happy times we had. We went to visit Jim and he asked if he could bring a person he was dating to dinner with us. Of course we say yes and the next day we said we were sure she was the one for Jim. Right after she and Jim were married, she invited us to come to stay with them on vacation. We remember when they lived in Dubuque, Iowa and we visited during the football season. It was cold and she opened the king size bed and the four of us sat in the bed covered to watch the football game. When my mother was dying with cancer, there was a knock on the door and in walked Colleen. She told us to go out for lunch and she took over taking care of Mom. She even bought the food, cooked it and cleaned the house. What an Angel. When we visited Colleen and Jim there was nothing but laughs and happiness. With sad hearts we were honored to stay with her during her first battle with cancer. She was very ill at the time. She also honored us by letting her daughters Rhiannon and Annamarie come to stay with us on vacation. When we visited them in Charleston, she always found a place for us to visit or go out for dinner. She actually treated us as parents and not in-laws. What a wonderful person for us to have known her all these years. We know she is with Jesus now which is the good news. Colleen, we will miss you as long as the Lord lets us stay on this earth. We certainly know what Jim saw in her.

“ Colleen became my best friend when she and Jim moved in beside of my husband and me just a couple of weeks after we moved in our new Summerville neighborhood. We were immediately drawn to each other. I told her I knew no one but my kids when we moved here and that God sent her to me. She was a gift. We have so many great memories with her and Jim and their girls. A lot of laughs, dancing, singing, playing pool, trivia, going to the hockey and baseball games, and many great dinners. She always picked new places for us to eat dinner and we would share stories and laughs over a glass of wine. There is a hole in my heart that she alone occupied and I will miss her dearly. I know she is experiencing the joys of heaven and making everyone laugh. We will laugh together again, my friend. Cindy Lowery.
