“ Uncle Coyu was one heck of a man. I remember helping build his home, going fishing, and growing up around the family. Heaven help you if you caught a bigger fish than he!!!

“ Coyu O. Pritchard, our beloved friend and neighbor. My family and I simply called him as Mr. Pritchard. My family and I have enormous love, respect, and admiration for him and his entire family. He was one of the most funniest, kindest, most giving, and loving man we met while we lived in Ladson. He and his family always made my family and I feel as if we were part of his immediate family, for which we will never forget. He was a great teacher, coach, and mentor, but most importantly, the greatest fishing buddy one could ever ask for in life. Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard we miss you enormously! My family and I find great comfort in knowing that you and Mrs. Pritchard were a wonderful Christian family, and that now the two of you are being cared for and comforted by our Merciful and Loving God Most High and His Son Our Lord Jesus Christ. Our deepest sympathy and sincerest condolences to your surviving family members. -Earnestly, the Rodriguez' (Manny, Rosemary, Jessica, Michelle, and Emma)
