Cynthia was born on January 13, 1969 in Brooklyn, NY, daughter of Vivian Jackson of Summerville and the late Harry Jackson. Cynthia, affectionately known as Toni, graduated from Samuel J. Tilden High School in Brooklyn, NY. Toni was relentless in life and always striving to make life better. She was funny, always trying to make you laugh, loved to write poetry and a free-spirit. As a true New Yorker, Toni always let you know where she was from. Whether you saw her with a New York hat, shirt or license plate, you had no doubt she was representing NY. Toni loved family and always wanted everyone to stay close. Most of all, she loved her daughter Erynne.

Survivors in addition to her mother Vivian are: one daughter, Erynne Duggins of Summerville; two siblings: Teshawne Jackson of Charlotte, NC and Curtis Jackson of Kentucky; and a host of family and friends.

“ We're so sorry to hear of her passing. I only met her briefly a few times but our daughters became close in school so we chatted when our girls hung out. She was so sweet and hope her family are OK. Our daughter was distraught to hear what happened.

“ Ms. Toni has been our children's only bus driver since our first was in kindergarten. We will miss her so much. She always looked out for our boys and made them feel safe and comfortable. She always spoke to me or gave me a friendly wave before she pulled away. We are heartbroken for the loss of such a wonderful person much too soon. Your family remains in our thoughts and prayers.
