Dan was such an amazing friendly guy who always asked about my kids and how they were doing... always had a smile on his face and worked hard to bring the very best out in his environment. I will miss his conversations and his laughter... RIH friend.

“ I was lucky enough to love on the street of Jacksonville and meet Dan and his beautiful wife. My girls are 23-18 so you can see we were a little busy during the beginning ❤️ I loved how Dan always and forever provided and put his family first. They always were so cute with matching costumes and party ideas. Dan was always with a smile and a friendly hand to help. I love all of you and miss not being able to see Dan over the past years when they moved away. I cried 😭 but knew they were going exactly where they needed to be. I love you Cheryl, Carter and Colin. I will be here if you need anything. Rest easy Dan and believe me your legacy will love on forever and always. All my love Kim Kati and Madi ❤️
