“ Pat was dear to me. I remember him as a little boy, darling and mischievous. Loved by all! Always a very special part of our family. Went to Vietnam too young. Served his country well as Medic flying missions in helicopter to attend wounded and dying. Never fully recovered from his time there. We have missed him during these past years. Each of our lives going in different directions. But our deep abiding love has ALWAYS been with him. God's blessings on the sweet family he's left all too soon. We'll pray to see him again in heaven. What a day that will be! RIP dear Pat.

Pat and Mike Crowe, my first cousins, were born with outgoing personalities and endearing "Crowe wit." My family's home in Jonesborough would ring with laughter and chatter when Uncle Dan and Aunt Willa came to visit. What a handsome, warm family! Although I have not seen Pat in several years, I remember how much he enjoyed the company of his family as we told our tall tales. Peter and I send our heartfelt condolences to Nancy and the children.
