“ I sure am sorry about my friend the Gouder , as I called him. I meet Darrell probably about 40 years ago. It was always an adventure to see him because you never knew what he might tell you. I missed seeing him when he retired except when I would run into him on his trips to town. He will be missed by the Butternut twins , his name for Bryce and I. Prayers to you

“ Sherry, so sorry to hear of Darrell passing. I know he will truly be missed by Prestlee, she loved “her Peaches” as she would tell me when she’d see a picture of him. Sending prayers.
