“ It's been almost 50 years since I knew David as a leader and competitive football player. As a Freshman at the time he was indeed a sound role model. As we all grow older and the final two minute warring is announced, there are always some special plays and some special players we remember. David was a great candidate for MVP of the Game of Life. “ Just learned that you are now guarding Heavens Gate. I am sure that is a better duty than guarding. me as your room mate our. knob year. You were a true Citadel man the minute you walked through the main gate. I will never forget the joy you expressed when you made a good grade and the hard work you put into it. I just felt a bayonet run through. me when I learned. today of your illness and passing, Heaven's gate is guarded. by a good man. All is quiet.

“ We were deeply saddened to hear of David's passing. He was a wonderful boss and friend for the time we lived on Edisto. It is such a huge loss for all of Edisto. We are blessed to have many wonderful memories of David. One of my favorite sayings of his that I remember - "As long as The Lord is Willing and the Creek Don't Rise." We will miss you David.

“ Doris: I am so sorry to hear about David. He was a true Southern gentleman and a man admired and respected by many. I knew him to be honest, a man with clarity of thought and I held his opinion about things of value to be words of wisdom. Edisto has lost a great American and a pioneer in his love and preservation of the island he so loved. May God grant you peace and comfort and warm your heart with the wonderful memories you and he shared. In His Name Mary Ann Cumalander Mauldin, SC

“ My heart goes out to your family at this time. I never knew Mr. Lybrand, but my mother, Roz Taylor, spoke of him often. They were childhood friends from Edisto. My grandparents, Otto and Roslyn Donny of Columbia, were friends with Mr. and Mrs Lybrand. The Lybrand name is synonymous with Edisto. Edisto has lost an important person in its community.
