“ Our condolences to my Uncle David's family, I was always closest to him, as he reminded me so much of his mother, my Grandmother. We loved to talk about the Lord Jesus and share prayers for each other and give thanks to God for whatever he was doing in our lives. Although I know everyone will be grieving for Uncle Dave here on earth, but at the same time I find solace in knowing he is in heaven with a perfect body with no pain in the presence of our Savior Jesus Christ. I'm sure he is embracing his time with my Grandmother, his Mom and the rest of his siblings that have gone before him. I'm also sure he is praying for his entire family back here on earth as was his focus always. I rejoice for my Uncle Dave and look forward to one day joining him and all my family who are in the presence of Our Lord Jesus and His angel's praising our Lord forever ❤️☐❤️👤 Irma and Tom Phillips

“ I met Dave and Kathy in NC while they were searching for real estate in the area. I looked forward to each time we would meet to go and see homes in the area. Dave & Kathy were such a joy to be around. I especially loved Dave's dry, straight forward honesty & humor; it was so refreshing. Dave was so easy & fun to be around and he had a knack of making you feel like you have been a part of his life for years. My sincere condolences to Kathy and family for your tremendous loss of your loving husband, father, grandfather, friend. May your memories of your lives with Dave comfort you during this difficult time.
