“ So very sorry to hear of David's passing. His parents and my mother were neighbors for over 40 years and our paths would sometimes cross while home visiting with them. I recall, as others have as well, how very kind and thoughtful he always was... a true southern gentleman... and always, a ready smile. So hard to believe it was only a year ago at his Dad's funeral that I last saw David and his beautiful family. My heart goes out to all of you.
