“ No words can express my sadness of the loss of Debbie. Even though we were cousins, we were "sisters at heart"! What a giving sweet soul. I will miss our late nit e talks and laughs. Peace is knowing she is with her dear sweet mama and they will be there to welcome those of us that love the Lord. Love and sympathy to her family. Sharon and Richard Shank

“ My Aunt Debbie and I were very close at different periods of my life. We shared laughter, secrets and memories (good & bad). Although her 3 Sisters and their families were not told of her death... we all love loved her & her family very much! I will miss her very much but I am glad she is resting peacefully.

“ We met Debbie, along with Steve on our journey to Cedar Rapids, Iowa. It was the beginning of an instant friendship in an RV Park near LittleBig Horn, MT. We reside in Washington State and we're hoping to make a journey to South Carolina to visit with our new friends. The loss of Debbie has put us in utter disbelief. We will cherish the short time we'd had spent with her. Our hearts weigh heavy after this sudden news. Steve, please know we will see you again, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

With sympathy,

Jackie and John

“ Sympathy is extended to Steve and daughter Dena. The passing of a family member is never easy, especially when its sudden. Surround yourselves with family and friends and share the memories.

So grateful to have known Debbie and will remember the many stories and pictures she shared over the years. She certainly lived an adventurous life. Even when she battled with her health, she remained positive.

“ I am at a loss for words having lost such a precious friend just when she moves back nearby and we renewed our friendship which began at the Chapel of the H.S. and as neighbors sharing coffee discussing our children who were the same age. It broke my heart when Steve, Debbie & Dena moved away. Now my heart aches again for Steve and Dena. I believe God has our days numbered but losing Debbie when she was so young, with her best days ahead has reminded me just how fragile life is and how we must never ever assume we will have tomorrow to say 'I love you'. Prayers continually for all of her family and friends.
