“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of Deborah. I was one of her priests at St. John the Beloved for a short period of time. She loved her God, her faith, and her family very much. She was a very devoted Catholic. I know that she received a warm welcome into her eternal home.

“ We knew Deborah through the Dialysis clinic. She always had a smile and a great attitude after her dialysis sessions. She and her family were real troopers to have endured what they did to live life on dialysis for so many years. Condolences to her husband and family. Debby Carlton
