“ Dear Debbie - Today I went to say goodbye to you one more time! I know you are now among the heavenly angels, but I still needed to talk to you one more time!! I miss you so much and i love you even more! I feel that my heart will never heal. I'll never be able to call you again and tell you I'm coming home, or invite you to my house for the holidays. I won't be able to tell you Happy Birthday or hear you tell me Happy Birthday! It's the hardest thing I've ever done in my life - to tell you goodbye! And I just keep doing it over and over. I thought I was prepared to let you go, for you to leave, but turns out I wasn't!! Rest nicely there in your world where you are free of pain! Wake with all of the pet pals who helped you make the trip and skip and run your way through eternity! It's really the only comfort I have now - knowing that God was closely watching, welcoming you into His House!! I'll be back to see you and talk with you again from time to time! But until then, I'll keep our memories close to my heart! I love you, Diane “ LaDonnis and family, so sorry for the loss of a wonderful sister. Over the years I would run into Debbie and the first thing I would see was that smile of hers which made her whole face light up. She was a very special person. I just want all of you to know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Extra prayers are being sent for each one of you for strength to get through this difficult time. Love to all. Your friend Donna Driscoll Leggette.

“ Taylor and family, Debbie was the kind of person that was always giving to others. She touched the lives of so many with her kindness. She was proud of you and spoke of you, her mom, and Crimson often. She loved you all with the kind of love this world needs more of. In your time of sorrow may you take comfort in knowing that she is no longer suffering and is with Jesus now, singing with the angles. You remain in my prayers.

Isaiah 41:10 fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

“ A beautiful and blessed soul - your heart, smile and effervescent nature will be sorely missed. You never met a stranger and always, always made the day better. Your love of family was second to none, both your human family and fur babies family. Thank you for being you, for sharing yourself with those around you and reminding us that angels can walk the earth because you surely did. Miss you and love you.

“ My Deb, Girlie - I will miss you always. You are a "saint" a rare "gem" a "precious stone". Friends with these qualities is rare. Our 35 yrs of friendship brought us much laughter and many memories. You were a blessing to all that knew you. Your presence in our lives will be missed. As sad as I am and as much as my heart hurts, I am happy you are pain free and the battle is over. I'll see you again soon but until then dance in heaven, be happy and pain free and watch over your beautiful daughter, as I know you will.. To your daughter and family, we are thinking of you and during the loss of our "Deb", your mother, your daughter, your sister. Our prayers are with you all during this time of sorrow. Love always, rest in peace my beautiful and wonderful friend. Tammy and Ralph Menica.
