

Denise Marie Bleamer

August 27, 1956 - March 9, 2025

Denise Marie Bleamer, beloved wife, devoted mother, grandmother, and friend to many, passed away peacefully in her home surrounded by her family on March 9, 2025.

Denise was born in Altoona, Pennsylvania on August 27, 1956. She was the daughter of Elizabeth Johnson McConnell and the late Edmund McConnell. She was married to her husband of 42 years, Jeffrey Bleamer, on July 20, 1985, in Allentown Pennsylvania.

Denise graduated from Altoona High School in Altoona, Pennsylvania and later started her career. She worked as a secretary with her last being at Cane Bay High School, where she was adored by her coworkers. She was a constant cheerleader for her husband, children and grandchildren, no matter what it was, she was there to support. Denise was a football fanatic, along with her husband, especially when it came to the Philadelphia Eagles. She had other enjoyments in life including traveling to the mountains of Colorado, relaxing at the beach, and most of all, spending time with her beloved family. She was known as the life of the party and hardly ever met a stranger. Denise always figured out how to put a smile on someone's face.

Denise is survived by her husband, Jeffrey Bleamer; her children: Nicole Noll (Tom) and Krista Martin; her grandchildren: Ella Noll, Harper Martin, Hudson

Noll and Cooper Martin; her siblings: Carol Ann Bagley, Maureen McDonald, Christine Dugan, Mary Beth Probst, Kathleen McConnell, Mike McConnell and Linda McConnell; as well as her mother, Elizabeth McConnell. She was preceded in death by her loving father; as well as two siblings: Patrick McConnell and Annette Griffin.

A celebration of life will be held April 25, 2025 at 11am, Citadel Summerall Chapel.

“ Denise, you will be greatly missed as you brought happiness to everything you were involved in. I will always remember your constant smile whenever I was around you and then the fiery competitive side of you at Football games was the other side this old linebacker loved about you. I feel Blessed to have known you. R.I.P.
