“ My condolences to Dennis's family. I was stationed aboard the USS L. Y. Spear AS 36 1989 - 1994. Dennis and I did not work together but were in the same duty section. He was a hoot. Always making everyone laugh, cracking a joke. Serious when he had to be. He was a good shipmate to all. His Spear family will miss his. We bid him farewell and God speed. 🚢

“ Dennis was a mentor to me as a kid in the Navy from 1990-1992. He was also a great friend. He was such a practical joker, he got me good so many times! I've talked to him from time to time through the years and knew of his many cancer battles and rough life in general. I will never forget him, he was the kind of shipmate and friend everyone wishes they had. I know Heaven gained a sarcastic angel on November 23rd. I just found out today from another shipmate and was deeply saddened, but at the same time happy to know his fights were over. Fair winds and following seas Dennis McKee, we have the watch. Rest in peace brother.
