

Diane Gorman Singleton

December 22, 1946 - September 13, 2010

Diane Gorman Singleton, 63, of Summerville passed away on September 13, 2010, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Throughout her life she never lost her faith in God or her sense of humor. Born in Savannah, Georgia, she was the only child of the late Clinton V. and Sallie Mae Henderson Gorman. She is survived by two children: Teresa Marie Singleton (Jerry P. Williams, Jr.) of Ridgeville and Douglas Wayne Singleton (Viki) of Charlotte, NC. She has five grandchildren: Jerry P. Williams, III (Trae), David Douglas Singleton, George Maxwell Singleton and Jackson Mitchell Singleton of Charlotte and Berkley Marie Williams of Ridgeville, SC and one great grandchild, Braden Michael Williams. She shared the last years of her life with C. Roy Myers.

Diane and Roy were partners and avid supporters of square and round dancing in SC and surrounding states. She served as an officer in many of the clubs throughout the low country. A member of Wassamassaw Baptist church, she was active in church throughout her life. A retired SC state employee, she worked for Charleston County School District, SC Department of Disabilities and Special Needs, and Clemson Extension Service.

A celebration of life service will be held Wednesday, September 15, 2010 at 4 o'clock at James A. Dyal Funeral Home Chapel, Summerville. A gathering of family and friends will be held at the funeral home from 3 o'clock until the hour of service on Wednesday. A private family burial will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Wassamassaw Baptist Church,

704 Wassamassaw Lane, PO Box 926, Moncks Corner, SC 29461 or the
MUSC Foundation for the Hollings Cancer Center, 86 Jonathan Lucas Street,
Charleston, SC 29425.
