“ I am so sorry. My sister and I have been ill and we did not know. Dianne and I were cousins on the maternal side of the family. We grew up in the same neighborhood. The last times that I talked to Dianne was at the funerals of her siblings. We talked about the good old days. Dianne was the first person that my brother in law met when he visited Summerville for the first time. The teens hung out at the Wave. I had not seen Dianne in years. It was as though the years melted away. Dianne was the type of person who made you feel special. She spoke lovingly of her family. To live in hearts, we leave behind is not to die. God bless all of you.
