“ As a Stephen Minister, I was blessed to be introduced to Dona in March of 2015. My weekly visits were usually on Mondays in the late afternoons. In our conversations Dona shared how much she loved God and her family. She always remarked how supportive and loving her children were to her. Dona was a living example of how a true Christian should act. During my last conversation with her last week, she remarked how she hoped she would be able to go through the dying process with dignity. Dona, dear friend, you did it with courage and grace - a true Southern lady whom I will dearly miss.
