“ Don's passing is a massive loss. When I worked with him at the paper mill, there wasn't a single day he wasn't telling jokes and cheering everyone up. He was a pleasure to be around and I regret that I didn't call him right away when I found out about recent events in late July. My sincere thoughts go out to all those friends and family who were able to enjoy his amazing personality for many years more than I had the pleasure of.
