“ Michele, Cheryl and Monte and family, There were never two better people then Don and Rowe, and now both together again and I had so many great times with our dances at our council home years ago and then the old Krankee Yankee good times! Don was such a happy go lucky guy who made friends wherever he was. I am privileged and will always keep their memories in my heart. God will be watching over him now. Denny Nacco

“ Although we didn't have the pleasure of knowing you a longtime, everytime we saw you, you had a smile on your face. It was when you were with your family, your smiles and laughter came. We saw how much love was shared amongst you all. Our prayers are with all the family as we know you will be missed dearly. In God's Grace,
Julian and Darlene Czeiszperger
