“ We are going to miss Mrs. Doris singing and smiling and carrying little Larry. God bless you because you really cared for your Mother. I know she is singing to the Lord now!

“ Will surely miss seeing Mrs. Doris walking the halls, singing & smiling. Loved it when we walked together & sang hymns. What a blessing she was to us all. Know that she is singing loud and clear in her heavenly home.

“ Dear Larry and Harriet and family, I am so sorry for you loss. I know your mother lived a long and happy life and you will all have good memories of her. I know Jesus was there holding out his hand to welcome her to heaven. God Bless you and keep you in the coming days while you mourn your mother.

“A flower has fallen Long before winter's chill Should have required Its beauty And the tree trembles" Our family tree has suffered a painful loss. Now we hold on to God's promises of eternal life in His presence and the joy of one day being together again. We shall miss you here with us, Aunt Doris and we look forward with certainty to the reunion of our family tree. Full flowered and fragrant Yet standing sure within God's splendid garden. You were and always be "My Saving Grace" - I love you - Patty and Jack “ *Nature*As a fond mother, when the day is o'er,

Leads by the hand her little child to bed, Half willing, half reluctant to be led,
And leave his broken playthings on the floor,
Still gazing at them through the open door,
Nor wholly reassured and comforted
By promises of others in their stead,
Which, though more splendid, may not please him more;
So Nature deals with us, and takes away
Our playthings one by one, and by the hand Leads us to rest so gently, that we go Scarce knowing if we wish to go or stay,
Being too full of sleep to understand How far the unknown transcends the what we know.
